

Reflect and Reconnect

Looking back on this past semester, what went well? What got you excited?

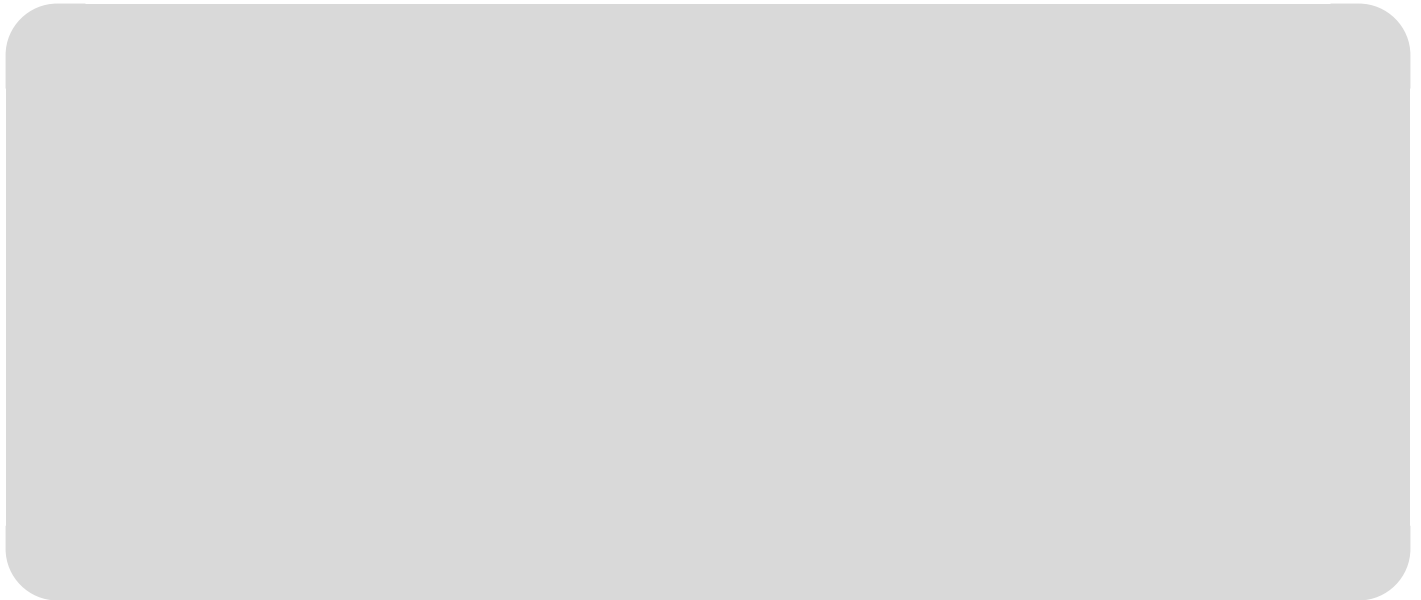

A large, light gray rounded rectangular box intended for the student to write their reflection on what went well and what they were excited about during the past semester.

What are some of your favorite moments?

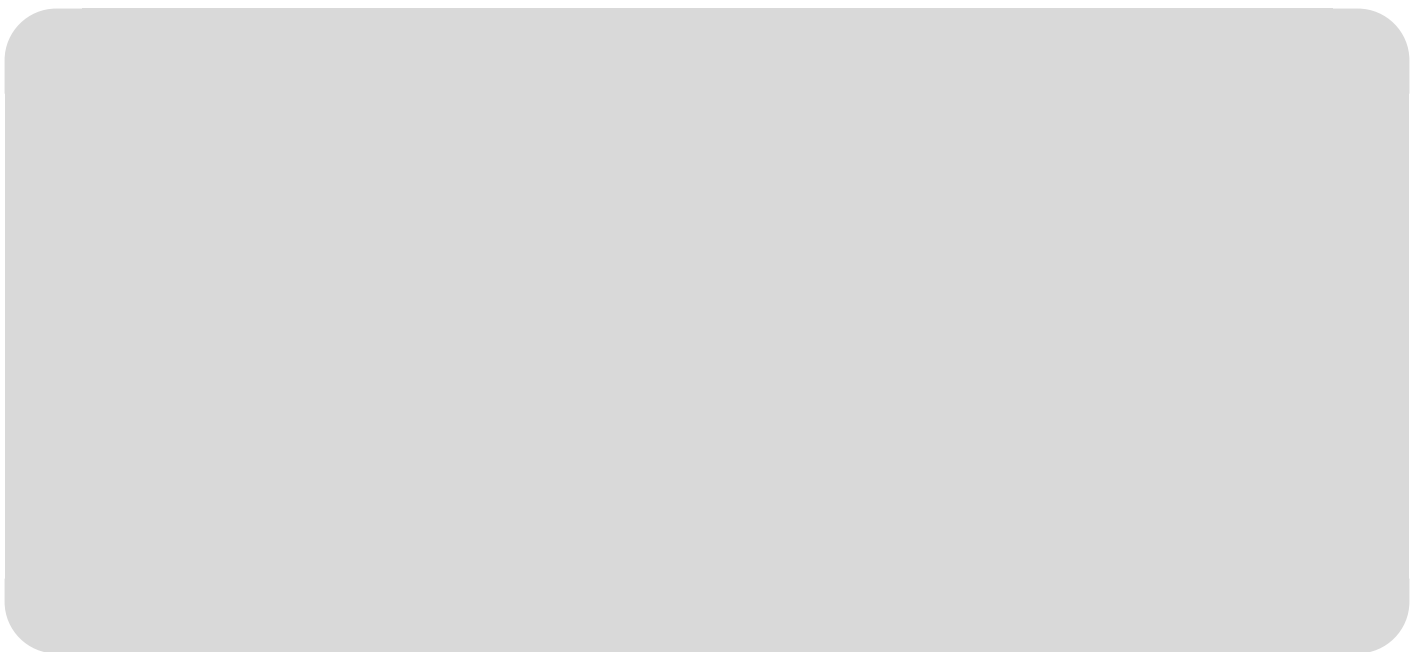

A large, light gray rounded rectangular box intended for the student to write about their favorite moments from the past semester.

What are some things you never want to try again?

What caused you stress or anxiety?

Who are some people you need to reconnect with?

What are some ways that you can reconnect with your art this week?

